AT the Court at St. Kenſington, the 28th Day of May, 1746.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable William Pitt, Eſq. Paymaſter General of his Majeſty's Forces, was, by his Majeſty's Command, ſworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Whereas there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Dr. Henry Plumptre, Preſident of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Phyſick in London, ſetting forth, that the ſaid Preſident and College have, with great Care, Pains and Induſtry, reviſed, corrected and reformed a Book by them formerly publiſhed, intituled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis, preſcribing and directing the Manner of preparing all Sorts of Medicines therein contained, together with the true Weights and Meaſures by which they ought to be made: Which Book is now perfected, and ready to be publiſhed, and is made more extenſive and beneficial to the Publick than the former, and, it is conceived, will contribute to the Good of his Majeſty's Subjects, by preventing all Deceits, Differences and Incertainties in the making or compounding of Medicines, if, for the Future, the Manner and Forms preſcribed therein, ſhould be practiſed by Apothecaries and others in their Compoſitions of Medicines, &c. The Memorialiſt therefore moſt humbly prays, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to inforce the Obſervance thereof in ſuch a Manner as to his Majeſty ſhall ſeem meet: — His Majeſty this Day took the ſaid Memorial into his Royal Conſideration, and being deſirous to provide in all Caſes for the common Good of his People, and being perſuaded that the Eſtabliſhing the general Uſe of the ſaid Book may tend to the Prevention of ſuch Deceits in the making and compounding Medicines, wherein the Lives and Health of his Majeſty's Subjects are ſo highly concerned, hath therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Privy-Council, hereby to notify to all Apothecaries and others concerned, to the Intent they may not pretend Ignorance thereof, that the ſaid Book called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis, is perfected and ready to be publiſhed: And his Majeſty doth therefore ſtrictly require, charge and command all and ſingular Apothecaries and others, whoſe Buſineſs it is to compound Medicines, or diſtil Oyls or Waters, or make other Extracts within any Part of his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, that they, and every of them, immediately after the ſaid Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis ſhall be printed and publiſhed, do not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinable Receipt or Preſcription, or diſtil any Oyl or Waters, or make other Extracts that are or ſhall be in the ſaid Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinenſis mentioned or named, in any other Manner or Form than is or ſhall be directed, preſcribed, and ſet down by the ſaid Book, and according to the Weights and Meaſures that are or ſhall be therein limited, except it ſhall be by the ſpecial Direction or Preſcription of ſome learned Phyſician in that Behalf. And his Majeſty doth hereby declare, that the Offenders to the contrary ſhall not only incur his Majeſty's juſt Diſpleaſure, but be proceeded againſt for ſuch their Contempt and Offences, according to the utmoſt Severity of Law.

William Sharpe.

Whitehall, May 29.

This Day arrived an Expreſs from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices Inverneſs, May 19, and 22.

The Heſſians are by this Time encamped at Burnt Iſland, and all poſſible Diſpatch is making for the Tranſports to receive them on Board. Thoſe here have only waited for a fair Wind for ſome Time, and the whole will be ready very ſoon. Brigadier Mordaunt is already at Perth, with the Royal's, Pulteney's, and Sempil's Regiments, to replace the Heſſians; and he expects all the M^c^Pherſons there to ſurrender ſurrender their Arms to him immediately. The Eſcape of the Pretender's Son does not ſeem as yet to be abſolutely certain. He was in the North of the Iſland of Lewis ſome Time ago; but failing of a Veſſel there to carry him off, he went to Barra at the South End of it; and we have a Report ſince, that he had miſſed the two French Ships, and was returned to Moydart. Major General Blakeney is arrived, and is to command the Forces which will be left here. Major General Bland is ſent forward with three Battalions to Fort Auguſtus; for which Place his Royal Highneſs propoſes to begin his March To-morrow, and hopes to be there in two Days. Brigadier Fleming's Battalion will march the ſame Day to Aberdeen, and Major M'Kenzie through the Hills to Strathbogie, with Lord Loudoun's Battalion, his Lordſhip being himſelf employ'd at the Head of the Independent Companies, and Colonel Campbell gone to ſerve under his Father the Major General, who is at the Head of the Argyllſhire Men.

Major Grant, Deputy Governor of Fort George, has been tried by a General Court Martial, for abandoning the ſame to the Rebels, and has been adjudged to be diſmiſſed from his Majeſty's Service, and rendered incapable of ever holding any military Office or Employment under his Majeſty.

Inverneſs, May 23. His Royal Highneſs is juſt ſetting out for Fort Auguſtus.

Whitehall, May 29.

This Day an Expreſs arrived from Major General Campbell with the following Accounts.

Appin, May 21.

Upon the 13th Inſtant Alexander M'Donald of Glenco ſurrendered his Arms, and thoſe of all his People who were at Glenco, to Major General Campbell, ſubmitting himſelf to his Majeſty's Mercy: Appin's People who were at Home, have alſo followed his Example, and both he and Glenco have given Notice thereof to ſuch of their Men as are abſent, ordering them to return to their own Country.

We have Advices from Mingary Caſtle of the 19th Inſtant, that the two French Men of War which were ſome Time ago at Ariſaig, had, beſides Stores, Ammunition, &c. landed the Sum of 40,000 l. That the Captains of thoſe Ships having, upon Account of the bad Situation of the Pretender's Son's Affairs ſince the Battle of Culloden, refuſed to deliver up the ſaid Money, the Rebels, by Threats and Violence, had forced it from them: That Murray the Secretary had taken Poſſeſſion of it, and had ordered it to be ſent to Locharkaig: That the Pretender's Son went off in an open Boat eight Days before the French Ships arrived, and landed in the Iſle of Lewis, with Colonel O Sullivan, and Angus M'Donald, Brother to Kenloch Moydart, and only two Servants; and that they propoſed to take a Veſſel from Lewis to France: That the Perſon called Duke of Perth embarked on board one of the ſaid French Ships, in ſo bad a State of Health, that his Life was deſpaired of: That there had been frequent Meetings of the Chiefs of the Rebels, and a conſiderable Number of their Followers, near the Braes of Lochabar, who were ſuppoſed to have aſſembled in order to the making of a Diſtribution of the 40,000 l. above-mentioned.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from Captain Duff, of the Terror Bomb, dated off Coll, May 19.

The Day after our Engagement with the two French Men of War off Loch Nouay, the Raven Sloop joined us, and having, in the beſt Manner we could, repaired the Damage done us in our Maſts and Rigging, upon the 6th, at Four in the Morning, we ſailed from Arras. About Noon we were in Loch Nouay, but not finding the French Ships there, we proceeded to Cannay, to endeavour to get Intelligence of them: At Cannay we were informed that they paſſed by that Iſland upon the 4th in the Afternoon, ſteering towards Barra; thereupon we proceeded towards that Place, and ſearched the Harbours on that Coaſt, but not finding them there, we went out to Stornway. Upon the 13th Inſtant near Cape Wriath we were joined by the Scarborough and Glaſgow Men of War, each of 20 Guns, and the Tryal and Happy Jennet Sloops. Having Intelligence of a French Sloop of eight Guns being upon that Coaſt, I was ordered to ſearch the Lochs on the Main from Loch Brim to Ardnamurchan, which I have accordingly done, but can get no other Accounts of her, than that ſuch a Veſſel was ſeen off the Mouth of Loch Brim on the 9th. Upon the 17th Inſtant I joined the Furnace off Glenaly. Yeſterday we went into Loch Nouay, and ſent a Party of Men on Shore to ſearch for Arms and Ammunition landed from the French Men of War. We found 20 Barrels of Powder, and about 80 Muſquets, which we brought off. Captain Furguſſon of the Furnace, has ſeized 800 Stands of Arms at M'Donald of Barraſdale's Houſe in the Iſle of Raſay.

Kenſington, May 31.

The following Addreſs of the People called Quakers, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Mr. Daniel Vandewall.

To George the Second, King of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the People called Quakers, from their General Annual Aſſembly in London.

May it pleaſe the King,

WE humbly beg Leave to approach thy Royal Preſence with united Hearts, to congratulate thee upon the Deliverance of theſe Kingdoms

Kingdoms from the late impending Dangers, with a Joy as ſincere as the Occaſion is ſignal.

We beheld with Grief and Deteſtation an ungrateful and deluded People, combined againſt their own Happineſs, and deſperately engaged in open Rebellion againſt thy Perſon and Government, wickedly attempting to ſubject a free People to the Miſeries of a popiſh and arbitrary Power.

As none among all thy Proteſtant Subjects exceed us in an Averſion to the Tyranny, Idolatry and Superſtition of the Church of Rome; ſo none lie under more juſt Apprehenſions of immediate Danger from their deſtructive Conſequences, or have greater Cauſe to be thankful to the Almighty, for the Interpoſition of his Providence in our Preſervation.

A Preſervation ſo remarkable makes it our indiſpenſable Duty alſo to acknowledge the King's paternal Care for the Safety of his People, of which he hath given the moſt aſſured Pledge, in permitting one of his Royal Offſpring to expoſe himſelf to the greateſt of Dangers for their Security.

May we, and all thy faithful Subjects, demonſtrate the Sincerity of our Gratitude for this ſignal Inſtance of the Divine Favour, by the deepeſt Humiliation, and by turning every one of us from the Evil of our Ways: And may thoſe who are placed in Authority over us, by the Influence of their own Example, add Vigour to the Laws, enacted for the general Suppreſſion of Vice and Immorality; ſo may we have an aſſured Ground of Hope and Confidence in God, that he who hath hitherto helped, will never withdraw his Mercies from us.

We earneſtly beſeech him, by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree Juſtice, that his Providence may ever attend thy Royal Perſon and Family, and make even the Efforts of thine Enemies conducive to the Eſtabliſhment of thy Throne in perfect Peace; give Succeſs to thy Endeavours for ſettling the General Tranquillity of Europe on a laſting Foundation, and grant, that an uninterrupted Race of Kings of thy Royal Progeny, may perpetuate the Bleſſings of thy Reign to our Poſterity.

Dated in London the 22d of the third Month called May, 1746.

The above Addreſs was ſigned by 266 Perſons.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this Addreſs of Congratulation. The juſt Concern you have ſhewn therein for me, and my Family, is very agreeable to me; and you may always depend upon my Protection.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of Leiceſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Harborough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Leiceſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Leiceſter, being truly ſenſible of the great Danger our happy Conſtitution has been lately in, from Popery and Foreign Arbitrary Power, beg Leave, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, to expreſs our Gratitude to your Majeſty for our late great and ſignal Deliverance.

Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Care for theſe Kingdoms was never more conſpicuous than in your ſending your Son his Royal Highneſs the Duke, to curb the reſtleſs Spirits of your Majeſty's and the Nation's Enemies; who has been the happy Inſtrument, under God, and your Majeſty, of reſtoring and ſecuring to us, our Laws, Trades, Liberties and Religion; and we are at a Loſs to know, whether we ought moſt to admire his Royal Highneſs's profound Judgment, in the Diſpoſition he made of your Majeſty's Forces at the late Battle of Culloden, or his intrepid Courage, and Contempt of Death and Danger, in the Courſe of that glorious Day.

As the late Rebellion was the firſt Interruption any of your Majeſty's Subjects ever received, during your auſpicious Reign, in the Enjoyment of their Civil Rights and Liberties, ſo by the late Victory we look upon ourſelves as fully reſtored to the Poſſeſſion of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings; and truſt and are firmly ſatisfied, that we ſhall continue to enjoy them as long as your Majeſty or any of your Royal Family ſhall ſit upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; which we pray may be to the lateſt Generations.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth Day of May 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Stafford, in the County of Stafford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord

Lord Viſcount Chetwynd and William Chetwynd, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Stafford in the County of Stafford, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, of the Borough of Stafford, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to tender to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the late glorious Defeat of the Rebels by your Majeſty's Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland; a Victory which we ſhall moſt gratefully remember.

Your Majeſty's Conduct and Concern for our Intereſt, peculiarly appears in your Choice of his Royal Highneſs the Duke to this Command; to whoſe Conduct and Valour (under God) we ſtand indebted for this happy Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as we look upon ourſelves to be bound by Duty and Intereſt; ſo we ſhall, upon all Occaſions, be willing and ready to exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, in the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and the Crown of theſe Kingdoms deſcend to your Royal Iſſue, are the earneſt Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt loyal, dutiful, and moſt faithful Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the twenty-firſt Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders and other Landholders of the County of Selkirk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Stair, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Landholders of the County of Selkirk, met at Selkirk the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty ſix Years, in order to proportion the Land Tax for the current Year.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, and other Landholders of the County of Selkirk, do moſt humbly beg Liberty to approach your ſacred Perſon with our ſincereſt Congratulations on the late important Victory, with which it has pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, againſt the Pretender's Son and his rebellious Followers, which Succeſs, we are overjoy'd to find attended with the moſt happy Conſequences of totally ſuppreſſing that unnatural Rebellion, which had too long ravaged the Northern Part of this Kingdom, and relieving the Minds of your faithful Subjects from their Terrors and Apprehenſions of theſe lawleſs Oppreſſors: And permit us, Great Sir, with Hearts full of Reſpect and Gratitude, to offer our Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's paternal Care of your People, in putting the young Prince your Son at the Head of your Armies, at this critical Juncture; for of a Certain, under God and your Majeſty's wiſe Direction, it is to his prudent Conduct and ſingular Courage, theſe princely Virtues which he Inherits from his illuſtrious Anceſtors, that we owe theſe ſingular Succeſſes, that at firſt check'd the Progreſs of the unnatural Rebellion, and have now totally ſubdued it.

We likewiſe moſt humbly beg Liberty, with great Joy, to lay hold of this Opportunity of declaring our outmoſt Abhorrence of this unnatural Rebellion, for which not the leaſt Colour of Provocation hath been given, which fills us with the higheſt Indignation againſt thoſe ungrateful deſperate Rebels, whoſe pernicious Principles, deſperate Fortunes, private Diſcontent and Diſappointments, have engaged them to involve their Country in Blood and Confuſion.

We your moſt loyal Subjects, with Hearts full of a due Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, moſt chearfully offer our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your undoubted Title to the Crown, in Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and in Maintenance of the Liberty and Property of the Subject, which, as they were happily preſerved to us by the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family to the Throne, can only be ſecured to Poſterity by the Eye of Heaven watching over and guarding your Sacred Perſon and your Royal Family.

We heartily pray Almighty God, that as your Majeſty has been enabled to put an End to this unnatural Rebellion, you may likewiſe confound and extinguiſh for ever all Hopes of the Pretender, Pretender, his open and ſecret Abettors, and ſecure the future Peace and Tranquillity of your Kingdoms; that under your Majeſty, and your lateſt Poſterity, this Nation may long continue to be a Proteſtant and a free People.

This Addreſs being unanimouſly approven of by the Meeting, was appointed by them to be ſigned by John Pringle, of Haining, one of the Senators of the College of Juſtice, as their Preſes, in their Name, and ordained to be inſerted in the Books of Supply of the Shire.

Jo. Pringle.

The following Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Leven, High Commiſſioner, &c. to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, met at Edinburgh, May 19, 1746.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with ſincere Expreſſions of our utmoſt Deteſtation of the preſent wicked and unnatural Rebellion, to teſtify our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty, and to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Succeſs of your Arms, by which we have the greateſt Hopes of ſeeing a ſolid and laſting Peace quickly re-eſtabliſhed in your Kingdoms, and your loyal Subjects reſtored to the full Enjoyment of all their juſt Rights and Privileges.

The gloomy Proſpect lately ſet before our Eyes, by the ungrateful Diſturbers of your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, makes us reflect with Horror on the pernicious Plot contrived by the Policy, and fomented by the Power and Intereſt of the avowed Enemies of our Country, its Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of the Balance of Power in Europe.

It raiſes our Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, that any, who have taſted of the manifold Bleſſings of your indulgent Adminiſtration, ſhould have attempted to exchange their Religion and Liberty for Tyranny and lawleſs Power, Superſtition and Slavery, and by violating the moſt ſolemn Obligations of Oaths and Ties of Gratitude, become Tools to the declared Enemies of their native Country.

Now that we are, by the good Providence of God, ſhelter'd under the Protection of your auſpicious Government, from the Storm that threaten'd our happy Conſtitution, we behold with Pleaſure the remarkable Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe Conduct, and by the intrepid Valour of your heroick Son the Duke, diſpelling the Cloud, and defeating the Rebels, who, hopeleſs of eſcaping the Vengeance of your victorious Arms, ſink under their Confuſion.

Great Sir, it affords us the higheſt Satisfaction to obſerve, That notwithſtanding the Calamities of our Country, and the traiterous Practices of too many of our infatuated Countrymen, the Miniſters of this Church, have, by Divine Grace, manifeſted a firm and zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: And as it is our Duty, ſo it is our unalterable Reſolution, to perſevere in our Loyalty to your Majeſty, and ſteady Adherence to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family: And it ſhall be our conſtant Prayer to God, that he may unite the Minds of all your Subjects into a juſt Senſe of the Happineſs they enjoy under the beſt of Kings.

May the ſame Providence, that has hitherto preſerved your ſacred Perſon, and protected your Dominions, continue to watch over your Majeſty, and your Royal Family, for a Bleſſing to all Proteſtant Churches, and the peculiar Happineſs of your Subjects.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by

Jo. Lumſden,
Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Barrington, and Thomas Watſon, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, with Hearts overflowing with Joy and Gratitude, beg Leave to offer our real and unfeigned Congratulations upon the entire Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Army over that of your rebellious Subjects; a Victory of ſo great Importance to the Nation, we chiefly attribute to the Army's being animated by the Example, and directed by the prudent Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

Permit us, Royal Sir, upon this happy Occaſion, to expreſs the high Senſe we have of your Majeſty's paternal Care of and Goodneſs to your People, in complying with their univerſal Wiſhes, by appointing his Royal Highneſs to command your Army, under whoſe auſpicious Conduct we flatter'd ourſelves with the moſt aſſured Hopes of Victory, and the great Event ſince ſufficiently ſhews how juſtly thoſe were founded. The Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms will be the higheſt Demonſtration to the World, how vain and deſtructive it muſt prove, in the End, to any of your Majeſty's infatuated Subjects, though aſſiſted by two of the greateſt Powers on the Continent, fooliſhly to attempt to deprive your Majeſty of your Crown, and what we look upon to be the immediate and neceſſary Conſequence of it, to effect the utter Overthrow and Deſtruction of a Conſtitution, which is productive of the greateſt Happineſs to Prince and People: But your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms being ſupported by Law and the Concurrence of the zealous Affections as well as the united Force of all your Majeſty's Subjects, who have the leaſt Senſe of the Bleſſings of Liberty, give us the greateſt Ground to hope, that your Majeſty and your Royal Deſcendants will, for the Future, continue in the peaceable and undiſturbed Poſſeſſion of the Throne to the lateſt Poſterity.

We take this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that we will take every Occaſion of ſhewing, by our Actions, our zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and that we will chearfully continue to exerciſe thoſe Arms which we took up by your Majeſty's Authority, at the firſt Commencement of this unnatural Rebellion, in Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government, and in Support of our happy Conſtitution, and until the implacable Enemies to both receive the Puniſhment due to Traitors.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven, having been tranſmitted to Sir James Lowther, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Cumberland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations upon the late important Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms againſt the Rebels; whoſe deſperate Attempts (aided and abetted by the avow'd Enemies of our Church and Nation) to deprive us of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, it has pleaſed Almighty God, in a moſt ſignal Manner, to defeat; and the more to endear your Majeſty's Family, and the Deliverance itſelf to your faithful People, to reſerve the Glory of it to a Prince of your Majeſty's Royal Blood.

Next under Providence, we acknowledge our Thanks to be due to your Majeſty's paternal Care of the Welfare of your People, in making Choice of a General to command the Forces deſigned for the Quelling of this unnatural Rebellion, ſo nearly allied to your Majeſty, and not more diſtinguiſhed by his illuſtrious Birth, than by his Martial Abilities, whoſe conſummate Conduct and Courage, form'd upon the Plan of your Royal Example, at once ſtruck a Terror into the Enemy, and inſpired ſuch an unparallel'd Ardour and Reſolution into the Troops under his Command, as were happy Preſages of his late Victory.

As this is an Event which muſt tend to reſtore and ſecure domeſtick Peace and Tranquillity to theſe Kingdoms, and to add Stability to the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, ſo it cannot be reflected upon by your faithful People without the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude. But the Means by which it was effected, muſt make it doubly grateful to us, whoſe particular Happineſs it was to have been delivered, by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, from the imminent Dangers to which we were expoſed, by the Reduction of the Rebel Garriſon at Carliſle; at which Time we had the Satisfaction to find our Zeal for your Majeſty's Service honour'd with the favourable Acceptance of his Royal Highneſs.

May your Majeſty's Arms be as glorioufly triumphant over your Foreign as over your Domeſtick Enemies; may you long reign in the Hearts and Affections of your People, the Father as well as Prince of your Country; and may there never be wanting in your Majeſty's Family, a Prince to defend the Liberties and Conſtitution of Great Britain, and to tranſmit the ſame pure and entire to our remoteſt Poſterity, is the hearty Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Earl of Galloway, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County ty of Wigtoun, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Colonel James Stuart, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Right Hon. the the Earl of Galloway, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wigtoun, met at Wigtoun the 6th of May 1746.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful, dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts ſincerely full of Joy, make bold, in the moſt humble Manner, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late glorious and compleat Victory obtain'd over the Rebels by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, who, upon that Occaſion (as upon every other) gave the greateſt Proofs of heroick Courage, and the moſt prudent Conduct; to which, under God, we do believe the Compleatneſs of the Victory was chiefly owing. All your Majeſty's Subjects have daily repeated Proofs of your Majeſty's Royal and Paternal Care, in doing every Thing that can promote the real Good and Intereſt of all your People; but we, in this Part of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, have lately felt it in the moſt ſenſible Manner, by your ſending his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland to command your Armies amongſt us. His Preſence entirely intimidated the Rebels, and, in a great Meaſure, put an End to the Rebellion.

Pardon us humbly to inform your Majeſty, that now and formerly, when too many of our deluded unthinking Countrymen were engaged in a moſt unnatural Rebellion, not one Man of our County, of either high or low Station, was ever concern'd in any Treaſon or Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Royal Family, and our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment. What we have been, we ſtill are, and are determined ever to be. We take this Opportunity of moſt ſolemnly aſſuring your Majeſty, that with our Lives and Fortunes we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, defend your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, Royal Family, and our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, againſt all Treaſons or traiterous Conſpiracies at Home, or Invaſions from Abroad.

May God bleſs and give Succeſs to your Majeſty's Councils and Arms; may you be long preſerved to reign over us, and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Line to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Realms, is the ardent Prayer of, &c.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid Hamlets: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude to that good Providence which has ſo remarkably bleſſed your Majeſty's Councils and Arms, in the Reduction of the late unnatural Rebellion, by the Bravery and Courage of your Majeſty's Troops, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland; a Rebellion! which threaten'd the total Subverſion of thoſe moſt valuable Bleſſings which we have for many Years enjoyed under your Majeſty's Royal Proteſtant Predeceſſors, and have been continued to us by the mild, legal and juſt Adminiſtration of your Majeſty:—— And we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves if we did not, at the ſame Time, return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for your unparallel'd Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in ſending your Son on that important Service, to whom, under God, we owe the Succeſs of that glorious Action.

Permit us, Great Sir, to renew our Acknowledgments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty; and as we humbly hope you have already found your loyal Hamlets of the Tower ready, in the moſt dangerous Conjuncture, to exert themſelves in your Majeſty's Cauſe, againſt all traiterous Conſpiracies whatſoever; ſo we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall deter us from being ever ready to ſupport your Majeſty againſt every Attack on your Perſon and Government.

May the Almighty Power ſtill continue to bleſs your Majeſty, and proſper your Arms to the humbling that Arbitrary Power which endeavours to enſlave Europe; and may we never want a Proteſtant Prince of your Royal Line to fill the Throne, till Time ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Miles Stapleton, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ſaid Borough of Leeds, with the utmoſt Pleaſure approach the Throne, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late happy Succeſs of your Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt your rebellious Subjects, the inveterate Enemies of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, and of our Holy Religion, and whatever elſe is dear to us.

We rejoice in this great Event, the entire Defeat of the Rebel Army, as the Suppreſſion of the preſent, and a more than propable Means of preventing any future Rebellion.

It adds greatly to our Joy, that this compleat Victory has been gain'd with the Loſs of a very ſmall Number of your Majeſty's Forces; and that the great Slaughter has been of thoſe who, infatuated by their Leaders, the deſpicable Tools of a popiſh Pretender, aſſured themſelves of the Lawrels of the Day.

As theſe fell, ſo may all your Majeſty's Enemies periſh.

We ſhould be greatly wanting to ourſelves ſhould we fail to obſerve, that the great Prudence and Valour of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, has, under God, been the immediate Inſtrument of our Delivery from the Terrors of our ſavage Enemies. Our utmoſt Gratitude is due to your Majeſty, as for all other Bleſſings we have enjoyed during your auſpicious Government, ſo for the Appointment of ſo conſummate a Commander of your Majeſty's Forces.

May the ſame Providence that hath hitherto been your Guard and Defence, continue to protect your Majeſty from all your Enemies, and preſerve you long long to reign over us; and may there never be wanting of your Majeſty's Poſterity a Prince to ſit on the Throne of theſe your Majeſty's Realms.

Given under our Common Seal this 22d Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, &c.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of your Borough and Town of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, in a full Senſe of that Joy and Gratitude which muſt neceſſarily ariſe in the Hearts of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, from the happy Suppreſſion of the late deteſtable Rebellion.

It cannot be doubted the Deſign of it was to ruin and trample under Foot a Conſtitution the beſt eſtabliſhed of any in the World to ſecure religious and civil Liberty; and we are ſenſible, the Defeat of this wicked and dangerous Attempt, is an Event chiefly owing, under God, to your Majeſty's judicious Choice of his Royal Highneſs the Duke to command the Royal Army; a Choice evidencing to your faithful People the paternal Affection of Majeſty towards them; a Choice ardently wiſhed for by the whole Britiſh Nation, and juſtified by the Conduct, Bravery, and Succeſs of this diſtinguiſhed Hero.

Victory is ſeldom perfect, the Joy ſhe inſpires is often damped by too great a Loſs of thoſe brave Men ſhe cannot always ſave. But in the late ever memorable Day, how compleatly did ſhe triumph? And that his Royal Highneſs received no Hurt, though in the Front of Danger, we cannot but aſcribe to that watchful Providence who governs Victory, and look upon as one of the greateſt Bleſſings with which he was pleaſed to crown that important Day.

Beſides the Joy we feel in common with your Majeſty's Subjects on this intereſting Occaſion, we have a peculiar Pleaſure in reflecting, that the Duke of Kingſton's Regiment, raiſed in this County, behaved with a Courage and Reſolution ſcarce to be expected from new-rais'd Men; many of whom imbibed in this loyal Town, the Place of their Nativity, that laudable and becoming Zeal for your Majeſty's Government, which they exerted on that Day, and during the Courſe of this Rebellion.

The Influence of his Royal Highneſs's Victory muſt be very extenſive; the Reſtoration of publick Tranquillity, the Preſervation of Britiſh Rights, the ſtrengthening that excellent Conſtitution Rebellion attempted to ſubvert, the adding new Vigour and Confidence to your Majeſty's Allies againſt the common Enemy, are all of them Effects we have Reaſon to expect from it.

That all Europe may acknowledge his Royal Highneſs their common Benefactor (for we cannot not but think his late glorious Victory conducive to a general and laſting Peace) ; and that your Majeſty may long wear the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, beloved by your Subjects, and diſpenſing the Bleſſings of a free Government, is the conſtant Wiſh and Prayer of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace of the Shire of Stirling has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Napier, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace of the Shire of Stirling, met at their Quarter Seſſions, and of the Commiſſioners of Supply of the ſaid Shire, this 17th of May, 1746.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, with the outmoſt Joy ſeize this Opportunity of expreſſing our moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your auſpicious Reign, and mild and juſt Government. We have always reckoned the Settlement of the Throne in your Majeſty's Family, the great Bulwark of our Liberties, and are convinced, by a long and happy Experience, that we neither have been, nor can be ever diſappointed in that Article.

How ſurprizing muſt it therefore be to us to ſee ſuch a Number of our deluded Countrymen, weary of their Happineſs, forgetting all the Ties of Virtue and Honour, aſſociate themſelves with our natural and inveterate Enemies, become the poor mean Tools of France and Spain, and, under the Conduct of the Son of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown, endeavour to ſubvert our Conſtitution.

But Thanks to the Almighty, their Schemes have been fruſtrated, and the Attempt has now terminated where it ought, in the deſerved Shame and Confuſion of its Authors. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland has at one Stroke ſilenced our Fears, ſecured our Liberties ſacred and civil, eſtabliſhed the Reputation of a Hero he ſo early begun to acquire, and ſhow'd himſelf a true Son of your illuſtrious Houſe.

Give us Leave therefore to congratulate your Majeſty upon this important Occaſion ; give us Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to return our Thanks to you for making no Difficulty of expoſing a Perſon ſo dear to you, when the Good of your Subjects required it, and our Thanks to him, who never valued his own Life, in Competition with the Intereſts of Britain.

This County, in a remarkable Manner, feels the good Effects of this happy Event ; here was the unfortunate Scene of Blood and Confuſion ; here were we as much diſtinguiſhed by our Calamities, as by our Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government ; and although we but now begin to breathe from our Sufferings ; although we have already exerted ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Abilities, yet ready and willing are we to embark every thing that is dear to us in ſo glorious a Bottom, and again expoſe Life and Fortune in ſo juſt and good a Cauſe.

We were ready at the very Beginning of this Rebellion to have taken up Arms to diſappoint the wicked Attempt ; but we had ſcarce form'd the Reſolution, when we were overpower'd by a ſuperior Force ; but no ſooner were we at Liberty to act, by the March of the Rebels into England, when we raiſed and maintained five Companies of Foot, commanded by ſome of our own Number, under the Direction of the Generals and Commanding Officers of your Army ; and we flatter ourſelves, that the Conduct and Behaviour of theſe Companies has merited the Approbation of your Generals, and that they have been found uſeful for your Majeſty's Service.

We beg Leave to conclude with our moſt ardent Wiſhes, for a long and proſperous Reign to your Majeſty ; and that your auguſt Family may for ever flouriſh, the Guardians of our Laws and Liberties, and Fathers of their People, the ſureſt Pledge this Nation can have, that theſe valuable Bleſſings will be tranſmitted to lateſt Poſterity.

Signed in Preſence of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply, by their Order,

T. Erskine, Preſes.
